

8th ORIGINI Programme – 2008

Participation Guidelines

MIB School of Management (Italy), together with Friuli-Venezia Giulia regional administration (Italy), several local financial institutions, the emigrants' associations of Friuli-Venezia Giulia region in the world, is promoting and organizing the eighth edition of the Origni Programme, an intensive Entrepreneurial Development course.

The Origni Course is aimed at the descendants of emigrants from the Friuli-Venezia Giulia region who are residents abroad. The objective of the course is to encourage a new and fruitful collaboration between those descendants and the Friuli-Venezia Giulia's business system (for further information please read the attached brochure or open <http://www.mib.edu/cms/data/pages/000089.aspx>).

The course has a maximum of 20 places and applicants should be between the ages of 23 and 40. The ideal candidate profile is a young college or high school graduate with some years of work experience, who is interested in acquiring specialized management education, with the aim to establish new entrepreneurial and economical relations with the companies working in Friuli-Venezia Giulia region.

Classes will be held in English. Nevertheless, several lessons of Italian language and culture will be offered to participants during the programme to help them improve their business Italian. The basic knowledge of Italian will be, however, an advantage for the applicant during selections.

MIB School of Management is located in Trieste and it is one of the most prestigious business schools in Europe, which has twenty years of experience in the field of management training. The quality of its courses has led to national and international recognition.

Origni Course content, starting with the analysis of the economic system in Italy and within Friuli-Venezia Giulia will focus on entrepreneurship as well as on current business tools and processes. An internship in a Friuli-Venezia Giulia company will allow every participant to develop a Project aimed at creating potential economic collaboration with Friuli-Venezia Giulia's corporate environment. Participants who successfully complete the course will be awarded a course certificate.

The Course will last for a period of 18 weeks from Monday July 21st 2008 to Saturday November 22nd 2008. Classes will be held at MIB School of Management (Palazzo del Ferdinando, Largo Caduti di Nasirya 1, Trieste, Italy).

Applications for the course, along with a Résumé, should be submitted by e-mail or fax to MIB School of Management no later than April 20th 2008. Participant selection will take place in May 2008 (details will be communicated later).

MIB School of Management guarantees successful applicants travel expenses (a return flight from their country of residence to Trieste), meals and accomodation expenses for the duration of the course.
